Girlfriends Summer Bible Study
Four Tuesdays in July

"By a Thread"
By Sarah Lary

Is faith really enough? Will my prayers work in the impossible places? Every day ends in a blur. I barely have time to stop and think much less consider where God fits into things.

This summer come together with for a 4-week Bible study in July. Just four Tuesday mornings from 9:30am to 11:30am - yoga pants and comfy clothes required! Childcare provided until 1pm so you can grab lunch somewhere on the First Dallas campus with your girlfriends.

Taught by Sarah Lary, based on scripture, and organized into discussion groups, the hope of this study is that we can go from hanging on by a thread to the holding onto the cord the Bible proclaims we can, "For a cord of three strands is not quickly broken."
