THE STRUGGLE OF SYRIAN REFUGEES -

NOW IS THE TIME TO PRAY AND SHARE THE GOSPEL

Displaced by terrible conflict...over a million Syrians have swiftly moved into Lebanon, where they now make up a quarter of the population. Haunted by the past, uncertain of the future, they wait out the war in makeshift camps and abandoned buildings.

Refugees have taken shelter in abandoned Gaza hospitals that were shelled in the 1980's. Since there are no safe playgrounds, rooftops have been made into play areas to keep the children out of the streets. For these refugees, and for the country that shelters them, life has changed forever.

May all glory go to the Lord for the showering of forgiveness the Syrian refugees are receiving from Lebanese believers. Once injured by Syrian armies during previous wars, some Lebanese are now showing the love of Christ by serving the needs of displaced Syrians.

"We're about to see an influx of Syrians, very similar to what we saw with the Iraqi refugees," said Rami Basatneh, a volunteer with the Syrian American Council. It is estimated that this year (2015) hundreds of Syrians will be resettled across the North Texas area. Many of the refugees will build new lives and make Texas their new home.

All through the power of prayer - now is the perfect time to share the Gospel with Syrian refugees. The displaced Syrians are coming to faith in Jesus. Large percentages of them are open as never before to consider alternatives to what they see of Islam. The contrasts with Jesus are becoming clear. They are open to hear the Gospel and are responding. Many are coming to faith in Jesus. Pray for God to open doors and answer prayers!
